

Everett G. Heinze, JR, MD

Education:

1969 - 1972	Residency – Neurology Mayo Clinic Rochester, MN
1964 – 1967	Residency - Internal Medicine Henry Ford Hospital Detroit, MI
1963 – 1964	Internship Henry Ford Hospital Detroit, MI
1959-1963	Doctor of Medicine Cornell University Medical College Ithaca, NY
1955-1959	Bachelor of Arts Cornell University Ithaca, NY

Clinical Appointments:

1972-Present	Neurologist Austin Diagnostic Clinic Austin, Texas
Present	Medical Director, Inpatient Rehabilitation Services St. David's Medical Center Austin, TX
Present	Medical Director, Inpatient Rehabilitation Services North Austin Medical Center Austin, TX
Present	Presiding Officer, Texas State Board of Acupuncture Examiners

Licensure & Certification:

- Texas
- American Board of Internal Medicine, 1970
- American Board of Neurology & Psychiatry, 1974

Military History:

U.S. Army Medical Corps, Captain Major, 1967 -1969
Vietnam, Bronze Star Service, 1968 - 1969

Professional Organizations

American Medical Association
Texas Medical Association
Travis County Medical Society
American Academy of Neurology
International Association for Study of Pain
Stroke Council of American Heart Association
American Congress of Rehabilitation Medicine

Teaching Assignments:

Adjunct Professor - Department of Speech and Communication Emergency Room
University of Texas, Austin, Texas, 1990 to 2002

Presentations:

The SF-36 Health Survey as a Predictor of Success and as an Outcome Measure in a Multidisciplinary Pain Program. Heinze, E.G. Jr. and Kean, M.B. RN. 10th World Congress on Pain, San Diego, California, 2002

Videotape Teaching Modules for Pain Clinics, Heinze, E.G. Jr. and Talkington, B. 8th World Congress on Pain, Vancouver, Canada, 1996.

Empowerment – The Chronic Pain Patient's Successful Return to Work.
Talkington, B. and Heinze, E.G. Jr. 7th World Congress on Pain, Paris, France, 1993.

The Development of A Comprehensive Outcome Measurement Tool for Pain Management, Heinze, E.G. Jr. and Black, J. 7th World Congress on Pain, Paris, France, 1993.

Publications, Abstracts:

Heinze and Quinn: Aseptic Meningitis in Siblings with Infectious Mononucleosis. Henry Ford Hospital Med. Bul. 14:229, 1966

Heinze, Frame, and Fine: Restless Legs and Orthostatic Hypotension in Primary Amyloidosis. Arch. Neurol. 16:497, 1967

Frame, Heinze, Block and Manson: Myopathy in Primary Hyperparathyroidism. An. Int. Med. 68:1022, 1968

Heinze, et al: Simple methods for Detection of Bacteriuria in the Physician's Office. Henry Ford Hospital Med. Bul. 16:279, 1968

Heinze, E.: Differential diagnosis of Stroke; Primary Care 6:699, 1979